

Interpreter

World Speaks is looking for bilingual or multilingual individuals to provide interpreter services (consecutive and simultaneous) to the community.

Individuals must be highly proficient in both English and another language and experienced in facilitating communication between two or more parties.

A training certificate, certification, or experience is required for this position.

Skills

- Bilingual or multilingual – highly proficient in both English and another language.
- Interpreting skills - active listening, good memory retention, extensive vocabulary, comprehends and renders the message without omissions, additions, or distortions.
- Cultural knowledge – Has an in-depth knowledge and understanding of the working languages and culture.
- Interpersonal Skills – individual can interpret ideas on a one -on-one basis and in group settings.
- Professional skills- responsible, organized, impartial, and neutral.
- Individual will possess our four core values of Connectivity, Diversity, Transparency, and integrity.